

Chief of police and other officers and agents.	resident persons plying any trade, profession or calling which is liable for taxation for State and county purposes, unless prohibited by the general law of the State. They may appoint a chief of police and such other officers or agents as may be necessary to enforce their ordinances, by-laws and regulations, keep their records and conduct their affairs; may determine the amount of their salaries or compensation, and also the compensation of the mayor and other officers; may impose oaths of office upon them and require bonds from them, payable to the State, to the use of the town, for the faithful discharge of their duties.
Salaries.
Oath of office and bonds.
Regulation of markets.	SEC. 9. The board of commissioners may establish and regulate their markets and prescribe at what place within the corporation shall be sold marketable things; whether by weight or measure may be sold grain, meal or flour, if the flour be not packed in barrels; fodder, hay or oats in straw; may erect scales for the purpose of weighing the same, appoint a weigher and fix his fees, and direct by whom they shall be paid.
Streets, bridges and sidewalks.	SEC. 10. The town commissioners shall cause to be kept in repair the streets, bridges and sidewalks of the town, in the manner and to the extent they may deem best; and they shall have power to cause owners of lots to make and keep in good repair, at the expense of the owners of such lots, sidewalks around their said lots, and for this purpose make such rules, regulations and orders as they may deem best. Whenever it shall be deemed necessary by the board of commissioners that a sidewalk or sidewalks shall be constructed or repaired, the commissioners shall, through the mayor, notify the owners of adjoining or abutting lots to construct or repair such sidewalks in such manner and of such material as said commissioners may deem best; and if within sixty days after the service of such notice the said owner or owners of such adjoining or abutting lots shall have failed to construct or repair the said sidewalks as above provided for, then and in that event the commissioners may cause the same to be constructed or repaired and apportion the cost thereof between the town and said property owners in such ratio as said commissioners may deem reasonable and just; and the proportion of such cost of constructing or repairing said sidewalks as may have been apportioned to such lot owners by the said board of commissioners shall be a lien upon the property along or in front of which the said sidewalk may have been constructed or repaired, and the said cost so apportioned on account of benefits received by construction of such sidewalk shall be collectible in the same manner that public taxes are now collected by law. For the purpose of giving notice as provided in this section, service of notice may be made upon an agent, tenant or other person having control of such property, and the same shall be as effective for all purposes as if such notice had been served upon the owner or owners.
Construction and repair of sidewalks.
Amount payable by owner a lien on property.
Service of notice.	